

Text :

One Monday evening Last November , Gaby Leboeuf decided to give up smoking

1 – One Monday evening last November , I turned up at my local “ Women’s Quit Smoking Group at “the village hall , keen to stop , but a little frightened about the sort of people I would meet there . I was expecting them all to be wrinkled , grey-haired people in their forties and fifties , who had been smoking a steady forty cigarettes a day for thirty years , But when I saw the group , I was in for a surprise . There were fourteen women sitting in the hall , and three were younger than me . We were led by Jerry , a cheerful woman in her thirties who had kicked the habit five years ago . In answer to her questions she told us that nowadays , in our society , more women smoke than men . And in the United States 1500 girls of 18 or less start smoking every day .

2 – Jerry insisted that in order to give up smoking , it is a good idea to discover why we started in the first place , and there she put the blame on the tobacco companies for directing much of their advertising at women . Smoking advertisements are particularly persuasive for women because they encourage us to believe that smoking will make us slim . There is some truth in this : Women who smoke weigh less and eat less , and when they give up , they tend to put on weight , possibly because they start eating instead of smoking .

3 – Jerry insisted that if we understood the pressures making us smoke , we would find it easier to deal with them . Kicking the habit would never be easy , she told us , but people who want to usually manage it . And the more times you try , the more likely you are to succeed . After answering our questions , she asked each person present why they wanted to stop . Several people mentioned pressure from their family . Others talked about the effect on their health and fitness . Funnily enough , no one mentioned the cost as the main reason for wanting to give up , and , in spite of Jerry ‘s lecture on cigarette advertising , almost everybody blamed themselves for having started in the first place . They saw smoking as evidence of weakness in their character and as evidence that they were not as independent of social and commercial pressures as they would like to believe .

<http://www.ereadingworksheets.com>

1) – Reading Comprehension : (6 marks)

1 - Tick (✓) the right alternative : (1 mk)

- The writer felt nervous about joining the group because :
 - She thought it would be difficult to stop smoking
 - She thought the other people would be different from her
 - She imagined the other people would not be so keen to stop

✓

1

2 - Correct the following False statements with details from the text : (2 mks)

- A - Jerry was not a former smoker
- a cheerful woman in her thirties who had kicked the habit five years ago.
- B - Most smokers wanted to give up smoking because this habit is very costly
- Several people mentioned pressure from their family, others talked about the effect on their health and fitness.

3 - Complete with a word from the text : (1 mk)

According to Jerry's statistics more girls start smoking than men and the majority of them are under 18. However, Kicking? this lethal habit isn't an easy job, but you should try several times to succeed.

4 - What do the underlined words refer to : (1 mk)

A - "We" (paragraph 1) refers to the narrator and the fourteen women sitting in the hall.

B - "They" (paragraph 2) refers to smoking advertisements.

5 - Answer the following question : (1 mk)

If you were a member of " Women 's Quit Smoking Group " , would you blame yourself or the cigarette companies for being a cigarette addict ? why ?

If I were a member of " Women's Quit Smoking group " , I would blame myself for being a cigarette addict because I should be responsible and aware of smoking's dangers. They shouldn't put the blame on everybody / other people to avoid their own problems.

II) - language : (8 marks)

1 - Fill in the blanks with words from the list . There are two extra words (3 mks)

Further / broaden / amazing / head / custom / explore / gone / treasures

Welcome to a soulful experience of vacationing in India , the cradle of ancient civilization with rich cultural heritage . Experience the sights and sounds of its treasures diversity that embedded amazing

in its geography , people and their cultures . Explore the beauty of nature and the timeless marks of Mankind that dot the landscape of this country . Priceless treasures of ancient civilization in the form of ruins reflecting the splendor art and architecture of times broaden by and the achievements of modern India , all invite you to explore them further and satisfy your curiosity . Its long history , which dates back to thousands of years , is another thing that draws many people . If you are an adventure lover , head to the North where you can go mountaineering , and if you fancy beaches , embark on a tour with Yatra.com and explore India and enjoy an exciting journey that will stay in your memory for life .

2 – Put the words in brackets in the right Tense or Form : (3 mks)

25

Two weeks ago , I took part in a trip which was organized by your travel agency . I would like to say that I (never / have) have never had such a horrible experience before . Your offer attracted me with the promises for a (good / arrange) was well arranged program , a guide who should travel with us all the time and a (luxury) luxurious hotel in the central part of the city . Unfortunately , I did not get almost anything of what I expected . Our guide did not have enough qualification , he did not follow the trip program and he did not know well enough the city , so for us he was totally useless . When we arrived we were (drive) driven to a hotel situated in the suburbs of the city . As a result we wasted three hours a day travelling between the hotel and the landmarks in the city center . The conditions in the hotel were awful : untidy rooms , lack of hot water and the view towards the industrial zone . I insist to be compensated for the (count) counters Problems which we I had during the trip . No doubt , my letter of complaint will not be the only one that you will receive . I am looking forward to (hear) hearing from you as soon as possible . Please contact with me on e-mail .

3 – Match the sentence part from A with another part from B to get a meaningful paragraph .

There is an extra sentence in B (2 mks)

A	B
1 – The ozone layer protects all living things	A – has been caused to the ozone layer
2 – In recent years however , much damage	B – damaging effects on the planet
3 – The ozone depletion has many	3 – the most serious crisis we face today
4 – A thinner layer allows more of the sun's	4 – ultraviolet radiation to reach the earth's surface
	5- from the harmful effects of the sun .

Answers : 1+ 5 / 2+ A / 3+ B / 4+ 4

2

III) - Writing : (6 marks)

Because eating fast food, smoking and using smart phones have become more and more popular among teenagers ; on the National Health Day , your English teacher asked you to write a 12- line article for your school magazine in which you urge your schoolmates to avoid doing things that damage their health and suggest ways to lead a healthy lifestyle

~~Together, Let's Preserve Our Health~~

Together, Let's Preserve Our Health

Nowadays, many teenagers are not paying attention to their health. In fact, they are being dominated by bad habits and seem to be unaware of their dangers. That's why I felt the need to write this article, on the national health day to urge my classmates to avoid these practises and help them lead a healthy lifestyle. First, I strongly advise you to stop eating too much fast food. Indeed, it affects your body and even lead to obesity. Add to that, I really need to express my worries about smoking teenagers because it is a lethal habit that will ruin your childhood and the rest of your life either. Not to forget you'd better stop using your smart phones, ^{to much} it does not only ^{result in} ~~cause~~ you eyesights and backaches, but ~~you~~ it may also turn you into a loner. So here are some tips to lead a healthy life style. For those who suffer junk food addiction, I suggest that start eating home-made food and practise sports as it helps you to preserve your health and keep fit. As for the smokers, you'd better join clubs in order to keep away from smoking and hopefully quit this habit. And finally, I advise Internet-addict to use their phones moderately and limit their screen time. In a nutshell, our health is truly valuable, it is priceless, that's why everybody should be strong-willed and responsible. So let's join hands and cooperate to instil positive practises and a healthy lifestyle.

*Adherence to content : 2 / 2 * Lg : 2 / 2 * Sp + Pct 2 / 2

6

