

The Text :

Steve , My Hero . (By: Catherine

1 – After a horrible divorce my mother met Steve , my step-dad now . When I first met him , he acted like he knew me for ten years . And we hit off right away . When my father discovered that , he started to treat us with rich expensive gifts ,and told us that my mother was not a good mother . Being twelve , I childishly believed him and started to hate my mom and her husband . He was trying to win my affection and that of my two siblings . It worked for a while .

2- After divorce , my father met Marie and everything went horribly wrong . He started paying more attention to her than his kids . When my father got married two weeks after they met , he started saying “ new wife , new life “ . So , I got depressed and started taking drugs . My father didn't pay any attention to us by then . I still hated my mom and Steve since my father fed all these stories of cheating and leaving him . When I had enough of my father ignoring me , I decided to go to my mom's house . That was when I realized how he lied to me about her . I was still into drugs .

3 – The next week I moved in with my mom . We moved in the next town . Steve thought it would be good for me . He had punished me , helped me and protected me from drugs . I stopped when he gave me a fresh new start . It was tough , and I hated him for it . He made me cry and scream all because he loved me . And without him I would have ended up in prison . He is and will always be my hero . I love him more than my real father . I can still remember the tears in his eyes as he held me tightly and whispered how proud he was of me . It was at that moment that I realized who this man really was : My father ...My Dad .

III) - Writing : (6 marks)

After discussing the topic of family and the role of each member inside it , your civic education teacher asked you to write a 12- line article for your school magazine to advise your friends to be more helpful at home highlighting the importance of sharing roles between family members .

Sharing Is Caring

Despite the fact that cooperating to do the housework is everybody's duty, many children ~~include~~ including some of my friends do not agree. That's why I'm writing this article to advise ^{them} everyone to be helpful at home and reveal the importance of this attitude.

It is undeniable that sharing house work is beneficial for the entire family, so you ought to, for example, clean your room and make sure to keep it tidy. In fact, it will take off the burden of the mother's shoulder and lessen her stress. And why not helping in cooking the meals? Next, my classmates, help you to develop a sense of maturity, autonomy and enable you to face adulthood? Another advice would be to clean the garden, you and your father together, that will not only strengthen the bonds between you but also improve your relationships and allow you to spend quality time with them. You can also assume the responsibility of baby sitting so that your parents have the opportunity to relax a bit. In a nutshell, it is not that hectic, you just have to be thoughtful, selfless ~~and~~, realise that sharing those duties is important to have a happy family and to be aware of its benefits.
